

July 2021

New restaurant struggles to fill positions

Feds to release \$120M in COVID-19 funds for Vermont towns

\$10B boost in COVID cash has Vermont revenue forecast riding high

EXPLAINER: Can rent aid avert eviction crisis in Vermont?

Vt. reports 55 new COVID cases, 1 new death

Vermont hotel rooms will cost you more

With Vermont tax rate approaching 84%, state pushes ahead with campaign

Area colleges scramble to find room for glut of incoming students

NH performance venues get COVID cash

Judge considering \$1.25M settlement for some SNHU students

New York unions raise questions about state-mandated COVID vaccines, testing

Welch, Stefanik push measure extending visa for Canadian 'snowbirds'

COVID case prompts move of Vermont Little League tournament

Expert: FDA's call for more children in COVID vaccine trial could signal delays

Why mRNA tech could be game-changer in creating malaria vaccine

Plymouth State awarded \$1.9M for mental health programs

NY to require state employees to get vaccinated or undergo COVID-19 testing

Sununu: No plans to issue new mask guidance in New Hampshire

Canada border guard strike could jeopardize reopening

Vt. officials say high tax rate key strategy to fending off delta surge

Vt. tax revenues propelled by influx of federal cash

$50M in COVID cash available for Vt. utility and rental assistance

Vermont delegation sends letter about passport delays

All COVID testing shifts to CVPH main hospital

Vt. education officials solicit feedback on how to spend federal money

Back-to-school uncertainty in New York as students await COVID guidelines

Winooski students head to Shelburne Farms for summer school

Poll: Jobs replaces COVID-19 as most serious problem in NH

Millions in federal assistance still available for NH renters

Senior support volunteer group ends work in New Hampshire

What you need to know about the delta variant of COVID

Hassan bill would provide grants for minor league baseball teams

Sununu signs 'medical freedom' immunization bill

Newport Farmers Market missing Canadian shoppers

Sanders predicts no GOP support on infrastructure package

Vermont COVID cases trending upwards

Bennington Selectboard ponders return of pledge after virus absence

UVM sees increase in student applications

Vermonters test positive following visit to Provincetown

Vermont receives $524M as first half of COVID relief money

Vermont State Colleges System to require COVID vaccinations for students

More than 100 requests for New Hampshire's vaccine van

With more vaccinated students, what will college campuses look like this fall?

NY releases some rent aid, but lawmakers say it's too little

As NH COVID totals pass 100K, Sununu urges vaccinations

Drug overdose deaths holding steady in New Hampshire

Super Senior: Betty Busch

Pandemic lessons learned about food insecurity

Despite Canadian easing, US extends land border restrictions

Key report puts the brakes on Vt. Labor Department computer system overhaul

UVM Health Network workers say wages compromising quality of care

Sanders: Economic inequality a death sentence for the poor

Demand for Vermont child care grants exceeds available funds

COVID-19 infections surpass 100,000 in New Hampshire

Clinton County health officials monitoring 2 'breakthrough' cases

NY: 8.7K of 11M vaccinated people test positive for COVID-19

UVM expert on Japan previews Olympics from Tokyo

Hassan presses Fauci on child vaccination timeline

Vermont projects could benefit from infrastructure bill

Vt. officials say communication districts will play key role in $250M broadband push

Conflicting advice: How will Vermont decide whether schoolchildren should wear masks?

Why some travelers prefer to ride trains, even if it takes longer

As US COVID cases rise, health officials say 83.2% Vt. vax rate offers protection

Disc golf supporters push for permanent Burlington course

Montpelier considers allowing homeless to camp in city parks

Staffing shortage has mail carriers working long hours

Amtrak Vermonter service gets back on track

More financial institutions banking on Chittenden County

Canada to let vaccinated US citizens enter country on Aug. 9

Application period opens for 'Summer Stipend' program

Pediatricians recommend universal masking in schools

GlobalFoundries to expand upstate New York plant

Winners announced in Middlebury business-boosting grant program

Camp for people with disabilities gets support from community

Champlain Islands region looks forward to border reopening

Vt. health officials say COVID misinformation poses threat to entire country

UVM board endorses mandatory student vaccination plan

Vermont group pushes lawmakers for universal school meals

Construction crunch hammers Vermont builders

What you need to know before taking off on summer travel

After long lines, passport agency in St. Albans says walk-ins not welcome

WCAX Investigates: The Price of Delayed Justice

Vaccination education a top priority at Akwesasne clinics

Scott says he supports bipartisan infrastructure deal

Will end of moratorium bring flood of Vermont evictions?

Lawmakers urge NY to lift limits on nursing home visits

Washout repair necessary before Amtrak's service restarts

Travelers desperate for passports converge on St. Albans

Scott, governors meet with Biden on infrastructure plans

South Burlington private preschool to offer outdoor curriculum

The Fix: More Vermonters sought help for addiction during pandemic

Virtual summit aims to build solutions for construction worker shortage

Pandemic-fueled demand helps boost NH skier visits

Coos County sees uptick in COVID-19 cases

Vermonters invited to sign up for free college classes

Vermont leads in vaccinations but state expects slight increase in COVID cases

Summer sessions aim to help Vermont students make the grade

Rutland High School takes on social, emotional learning

Berlin Mall owners propose affordable housing

Overnight campers back to summertime traditions

New York takes conservative approach counting virus deaths

Advocates urge governor to reinstate Vt. homeless hotel program

State-run COVID vaccination site in Plattsburgh to close

Scammers target child tax credit money

Lawmakers demand answers on New York rent relief rollout

New Hampshire June unemployment rate unchanged from May

Sununu signs into law broadband matching grants, fund

NH funeral service gatherings go up as pandemic eases

Program to offer free college courses to Vermonters

Reserve your seat ahead of Amtrak return celebrations

Saying goodbye: Funeral homes working through pandemic backlog

Monthly child tax credit payments begin this week

Burlington City Council to resume in-person meetings, add hybrid option

About 40 homeless seek eligibility to stay in Vermont motels longer

Dieticians see rise in eating disorders during pandemic

COVID-19 vaccine van available for NH groups, community events

Flynn Theater plans grand reopening celebration

League of NH Craftsmen fair to be held in person this year

NY uptick in COVID-19 cases as vaccination rates slowly rise

Burlington businesses spring back to life

Dartmouth College COVID-19 task force to end work by Aug. 1

NH housing council sets ambitious goals

The Prouty returns to in-person events, breaks fundraising record

How small-town businesses are bouncing back from COVID

Essex Junction couple opens donut bus as pandemic project

Out-of-state shots could reduce Vermont numbers in border areas

UVM Medical Center copes with shortage of specialists, lengthy patient wait times

Vermont experiencing hard liquor shortages

Will ban on spectators at Olympics affect athlete performance?

The Super Seniors of Twin Valley

Kids dive back into summer activities

Local food delivery platform gains footing in the Upper Valley

More than \$140K in back wages owed to NH pizza delivery workers

Vt. tourism season heats up as labor problems persist

Big dairy donation to help feed hungry Vermonters

Dartmouth-Hitchcock says remote work will expand room for patients

Vermont DMV to reopen some satellite offices

Police urge drivers to slow down, avoid another deadly July

During Plattsburgh visit, Schumer calls for border reopening

Visitors return to Vermont Statehouse

Why are Vermont courts sticking to pandemic protocols?

Welch pitches projects in pending infrastructure bill

Vermont's 82.4% tax rate continues to lead nation

Costco dropping special pandemic shopping hours

Up to 2,000 Dartmouth-Hitchcock employees to stay remote

After more than a year, Vermont Statehouse set to reopen its doors

Why Bristol skipped 4th of July parade for 2nd straight year

Burlington beaches see fewer 4th of July revelers

Canadian border restrictions begin to ease

Vermont to reopen most courthouses, but masks still required

NYC temporary morgue lingers, a reminder of pandemic's pain

Hassan seeks help for those waiting for stimulus checks

Party planned for Amtrak return to Vermont after pandemic

Burlington mayor honors 'heroes' of COVID emergency

Stuck in Vermont: Family reunions at Woodridge Rehabilitation and Nursing in Berlin

Veteran Olympic broadcaster headed to Tokyo games

Vermont groups scramble to set up permanent housing options

Vacationers take to the roads for holiday weekend

Low vaccination rate continues for Native Americans in Vermont

NY sees signs of COVID-19 upticks after weeks of decreases

Scott vetoes housing registry bill

Vermont reports first COVID death in 3 weeks; Vax rate hits 82.1%

Celebrating a hometown hot dog favorite

Infrastructure bill moving through Congress contains key NH projects

UVM Health Network poised for rate hikes

Barre trucking company sets up paid training program to attract drivers

The Wild Center reopens to visitors

Vermont City Marathon to expand field of runners