

June 2021

Many Vt. employers encourage vaccinations, but few require it

Judge gives 2-week reprieve in homeless hotel case

New Vermont laws take effect July 1 as state benefits from federal cash

NH shutting down emergency operations, information centers

Scott says he will not extend federal unemployment payment

Vt. Community Loan Fund awarded \$1.8M for COVID relief efforts

Fireworks sales boom ahead of 4th of July

Vermont approaching 82% vax rate

New NY rent fund sees website crashes, but tenants hopeful

Vt. housing advocates sue state over end of pandemic program

Vermont lawmakers slated to pick back up on Act 250 reform

Restaurants still struggling to hire workers

How volunteers help keep Vermont trails ready for hikers

Pricey loophole helps some Canadians cross the border

Older adults rejoice as senior centers reopen

High court rejects New Hampshire-Massachusetts tax dispute

Vermont information centers reopen

Vermont museum annex project delayed by pandemic-related costs

Youth invitational dairy show in Woodstock

Farmers market vendors reflect on pandemic financial hit

Woodstock's Billings Farm celebrates 150 years

Vermont Renaissance Faire returns

Taste of the Fair returns for second year

COVID Support VT granted extension to continue support services

Former UPS Store owner fined for violating mask mandate

Despite wide reopening, some Vermont state services remain closed

NH lawmakers approve \$13.5 billion budget package

Vermont-made app aims to ease restaurant labor crunch

Burlington's Roxy among theaters hoping for post-pandemic comeback

Can rent aid avert eviction crisis across the region?

Stefanik pushes bill to loosen U.S.-Canada border closure

Dartmouth relaxes COVID rules, requires worker vaccinations

Rescue Plan funds to support NH child care programs, workers

Vt. advocacy groups reach out to help those losing housing next week

New York to let COVID-19 state of emergency expire

Will pandemic spur trend of 'home food procurement'?

Vt. unemployment rate back to pre-pandemic 2.6%

Burlington bar scene returning to normal

Vermont still leads nation on COVID vaccinations

Homeless hotel deadline approaching

Region's tourism economy on the rebound

Rutland announces 'Parade of Heroes'

Vermont Open Championship returns to Fairlee

New Hampshire lagging behind other New England states in COVID vaccinations

Vermont National Guard taking down pandemic surge site

Remote hearings continue as Vermont works to reopen courts

NY to shift vaccination push to least vaccinated communities

YCQM: June 20, 2021

From golf to fishing, area fathers prep for busy weekend

UVM Health Network winding down mass vaccination sites

Beach season arrives in Plattsburgh

Newsmaker Interview: Vermont remains nationwide leader on vaccinations

Canada extending border closure

CCV won't require COVID vaccination

NH eases mask, quarantine guidelines, contact tracing

Delta variant makes inroads in Vermont

NH girls camp gears up for summertime 'magic'

Canada due to receive 1 million Moderna doses from US

Many small vaccine clinics helped Vermont reach 80% goal

Respiratory viruses return; keeping unvaccinated kids safe this summer

Amendment would allow NH Legislature to end governor's emergency orders

New Hampshire unemployment at historic low

Burlington leaders share the lessons they learned during the pandemic

New reciprocal nursing law aims to address Vermont's spiraling health care costs

Area hospitals continue to deal with pandemic-related blood shortages

Dartmouth plans lottery to encourage students to live off-campus

Judge rules in favor of hotel group in insurance dispute

NY lifts more COVID-19 rules as it hits vaccination mark

Vt. emergency order expires; executive order aims to provide ongoing assistance

Leahy questions ag secretary on timeline of dairy relief

How COVID changed pageant competitions

Vermont Corrections aims to soon allow visitation at prisons again

NH unemployment rate for May dips to below pre-pandemic rate

UVM to resume work on recreation and wellness area

With COVID emergency over, Vermont meetings must be public

Pandemic creates challenges for electric bus rollout

Hospitals to keep following CDC guidelines despite end of Vt. COVID restrictions

Vermont reaches 80% vaccination goal; Scott declares full reopening of state

Hospitals to keep following CDC guidelines despite end of Vt. COVID restrictions

Big events back on but can Vermont businesses staff them?

New Hampshire must hold in-person public meetings

New York boasts low COVID-19 positivity rate

Bill would permanently expand telehealth services

World Blood Donor Day: The state of Vermont's blood supply

Hassan: Mask requirement lifted for commercial fishermen

Local brewery gives out pints and pickles if you get your shot

Dartmouth College allows guests at graduation ceremony

Baseball returns to Tupper Lake

Vermont vaccination clinics June 12th and 13th

Vermonters react as state inches toward 80% vaccination goal

Bike Week is back in the Granite State

New Hampshire Statehouse complex to reopen on Monday

Advocates for Vt. homeless urge delay in lifting emergency order

Dartmouth med school drops cheating charges against students

Burlington High School seniors celebrate in-person graduation

Vermont sees increase in gypsy moth caterpillars

Free state park entry and COVID shots this weekend

New Hampshire's pandemic state of emergency ends Friday

Vermont town clerks tasked with implementing new vote-by-mail law

Jury trials resuming in some Vermont counties

Light at the end of the tunnel as Lebanon construction project winds down

Tips for booking summer travel

Northern New England reps urge US-Canada border reopening

Burlington airport travelers weigh in on vaccine passports

Honor flights back on this summer for local veterans

Vermont governor signs multibillion-dollar state budget

State colleges offering more than \$16M in free tuition for Vermonters

UVM to require COVID vaccinations once fully approved by FDA

Vermont 'reopening' will include continued restrictions for some

Fauci urges vaccinations to stop 'delta' variant; first case detected in Vermont

Will old social norms return in the post-pandemic world?

Sailing program for cancer patients preparing for busy summer

Vermont governor signs multibillion-dollar state budget

Vt. congressional delegation urges president to work to reopen border

Scott signs bill expanding ballot access, bucking GOP voter restriction trend

State to cut back on homeless hotel vouchers

Vermont at 79.4% vaccinations; remains safest state

Soaring lumber prices drive up costs for nonprofits

Northern New York school to offer virtual classes permanently

Labor: Work search requirement restart lowers Vt. unemployment

Sanders calls president's budget plan a step forward for working families

Vermont online map shows vaccination rate by town

Mountain biking gets back into gear

Burlington ends retail mask mandate

Striving for 80%: Offering incentives to get more Vermonters vaccinated

More virus rules to lift if 70% of NY adults get vaccine jab

Vermont cities, towns to split \$58M in federal relief funds

Gov. Scott signs bill aimed at making voting easier

Burlington City Council to discuss mask mandate again

Some Vermont towns cancel July Fourth celebrations

600 nonprofits registered for 24-hour online donation event

Masks part of decision for early release of NH students in heat

NY Education Department to schools: Masks still required

New England's success against COVID-19 could be a model

NH high court lifting mask requirement; Vt. theater reopening

The Edge offers free gym membership with COVID shot

Gov. Scott hopes to lift restrictions this week

In-person municipal meetings coming back when Gov. Scott lifts all remaining restrictions

Masks optional in New York state schools starting Monday

\$30 million for Vt. businesses that didn't get relief funding

Essex County, NY, going on 10 days without COVID case

Vt. offers weekend vaccination clinics in push to 80%

Advocates: NY must protect people in group homes amid COVID

NH investing up to \$100M in mental health services

Summer enrichment programs mobilize for Vt. youth

Are cocktails to-go here to stay?

Affordable housing key element to Vermont pandemic relief plan

Stefanik: Canadian border closure not 'equitable' for US citizens

Vt. lawmakers say remote access sessions are here to stay

Taxpayers to foot mounting legal bills over Cuomo probes

Brattleboro votes to end mask mandate

Burlington to drop COVID state of emergency June 15

Vermont legislative leaders highlight session's accomplishments

Federal judge to rehear NH challenge to in-person legislative sessions

More NH virtual job fairs scheduled, technical issues arise

Plattsburgh nursing home reaches vaccine milestone

80% Vt. vax reopening goal expected by end of week

Faced with exhausted teachers, Vt. districts scale back pandemic 'summer school'

Vermont brewers optimistic for full reopening and summer season

Church Street businesses encouraged by bustling Memorial Day weekend

