

June

Coronavirus has more families seeking mental health help for kids

Why the pandemic has some businesses booming

Sanders pushes task force to commit to COVID-19 vaccine for all

Leahy calls for comprehensive COVID-19 testing, tracing

Sununu blames COVID-19 for \$540M budget shortfall in NH

NH House passes package of pandemic-related bills

NY adds states to quarantine list, sends monitors to NYC

The challenges of campaigning during a pandemic

Guard deployment on schedule despite coronavirus

Judge: Gov. Cuomo's eviction suspension is constitutional

NH House passes worker voting bills related to coronavirus

How South Burlington is enforcing mandatory mask requirement

CVMC to use thermal imaging camera for temperature screenings

Big E fair canceled due to pandemic

Scott expands travel map to low-COVID counties across Northeast

Vermont virtual legislative session to adjourn Friday

Vermont mask spreads message of unity in face of pandemic

Opening weekend for camping at Vermont State Parks

Judge blocks 25% capacity rule for religious services in NY

Vermont health commissioner: Budget your exposure

8 Vermont police officers test negative in 1st round of COVID-19 tests

Hassan asks for action on scammers

Vermont primary early voting starts Friday

Burlington to close some downtown streets to support businesses

Child care center expanding Chittenden County locations

Maine hotels reopen to out-of-staters; Vt., NH exempt from quarantine

COVID cancels Vermont fairs but you can still enjoy the food

NH agencies teaming up to offer families health, wellness kits

Vermont to allow larger social gatherings on Friday

How much should people be told about COVID in their communities?

Local movie theaters prepare to reopen with precautions

Why are more Catholic Churches closing their doors?

7 new cases; Inmate at St. Albans prison tests positive

Vermonters taking part in UVM COVID-19 study

Construction crews starting to make up ground after shutdown

Tattoo shops see a boom in business after reopening

Flynn cancels all main stage performances through 2020

Fund created to help self-employed in New Hampshire

Vermont virus clusters contained; further openings expected Friday

UVM researcher says many prefer telecommuting

Basic health precautions remain key deterrent to viral spread

UVM hopes to be part of COVID-19 vaccine testing

Travelers to NY, NJ, Conn. told to isolate; NY malls, movie theaters, gyms to stay closed

NH housing industry experts warn evictions could spike

NH bill would help electricians, contractors; fair canceled

Clinton County DMV to reopen by appointment only Wednesday

Why gas prices are starting to pump back up

UVM Medical Center now allowing some visitation

How to prep your pet for your return to the workplace

Grace Potter, Dave Matthews to headline virtual benefit concert

Vt. fatal overdoses doubled in first two months of pandemic

Glover students try to recoup class trip money

Vt. unemployment insurance decrease aims to help during COVID

Pink slips Tuesday at National Life

NH nursing home employees will continue to get hazard pay

Windham County COVID-19 cluster limited to 'familial connections'

Gillibrand calls for release of USDA rural broadband funding

Vermont State College System seeks input on temporary chancellor

NH task force: Concerns over social distancing, hybrid learning

Bennington College reopens outdoor public spaces

Physically distant fitness: Gyms adjust to the coronavirus

Lake Placid Ironman tentatively rescheduled for August

Burlington City Council to vote on police cuts next week

Restaurants hold out hope for \$120B federal aid package

If a vaccine came out for COVID-19, would you get it?

Many regional camps scrap 2020 season

Scott asks Vermonters to stay united, avoid virus political polarization

Summer camps that meet COVID-19 guidelines kick off

NY Jewish sleepaway camp operators sue for coronavirus closures

Maine has widest virus racial disparity gap in the country

From shops to dining out, NYC reopening hits 'biggest piece'

White River Jct. creates outdoor seating for restaurants

Vermont plastic bag ban July 1; some states delay amid virus

Vermont hopes to pass 1st quarter budget, return in August

Why working from home is burning people out

Report: Rural Vermont, New Hampshire responded well to virus

Mutation may make coronavirus more infectious

Families reconnect with loved ones at Berlin nursing home on Father's Day

Governor relaxes rules on tourism, hospitality industries

Did COVID-19 spread at UVM basketball game?

Friends, family bid farewell to Vermont's first coronavirus victim

How Vermont summer camps are dealing with social distancing

100 Days of Cuomo: Governor ends daily COVID-19 briefings

New Hampshire summer school guidance issued

Haircut event helps stylists who helped their community

Rutland maps out plan to help struggling businesses

Welch: The sooner the better on CARES Act allocations

Vermont motorcyclists able to get a license

Vermont to allow drive-in 4th of July fireworks

Killington Resort to do drive-in fireworks display for the Fourth

Vermont wins grant to help with COVID-19-related services

Stowe, Okemo, Mount Snow set to open June 26th

New guidance on reopening Vermont schools raises questions

Farmers to Families food distribution contract extended

How Vermont senior facilities are readying for visitors

Vermont reports first COVID-19 death since May

NVU advisory committee presents recommendations

NH amusement parks, movie theaters to open soon

Cuomo: NYC is on track for next phase of virus reopening

Plexiglass installers see boom in 'sneeze guards'

Plattsburgh mayor gets budget proposal out early

Fairlee's Whippi Dip calls it quits

Burlington airport experiments with new temperature gauges

Dentists face unique challenges to reopen

Researchers look to robots to fight the coronavirus

Thunder Road season gets underway Thursday without fans

Vt. health commissioner: Avoid out-of-state travel if you can

Scott greenlights visitation at Vt. long-term care facilities, nursing homes

Vermont restaurants worry stimulus relief won't go far enough

New guidance released for reopening Vermont schools

North Country student shares song about class of 2020

'Literally incomprehensible': Sanders condemns Trump rally

Vermont State of Emergency could expire by Labor Day

No confirmed COVID-19 cases connected to Vermont protests

Inmate recently transferred to Vermont tests positive for COVID-19

No active cases of COVID-19 in Clinton County

Some Vermont teachers concerned about reopening guidance

Vermont saving money as lawmakers work remotely

Vt. DMV resumes commercial vehicle learner's permit testing

Lost summer: Many NH day, residential camps closed

Vermont lawmakers scale back broadband plans

NerdWallet survey: How the pandemic alters Americans' financial habits

Saving money on your cellphone bill during the pandemic

Widely available drug cuts coronavirus-related deaths in study

Nectar's to resume live concerts this weekend

FDA cautions pet owners about spreading coronavirus in new video

Vermont SBAC test results highlight familiar achievement gap

Closure of college-run child care blindsides Chittenden County parents

What will return to UVM look like for students, faculty?

Vermont lawmakers work to finalize \$500M funding plan

US-Canada border closure extension frustrates North Country businesses

Plattsburgh mayor pitches budget; public hearing scheduled for Thursday

Efficiency Vermont expands weatherization program eligibility

Regulatory loophole leaves Vt. driver's ed students, teachers in limbo

South Burlington businesses required to post mask signage

New Hampshire Senate returns to Statehouse

New Hampshire unemployment rate 14.5% for May

Maine sees increase in Vermont, New Hampshire travelers

Why the coronavirus has some moving in the middle of the pandemic

Some NH long-term care centers will allow outdoor visits soon

How to prevent 'mask-ne' from your face mask

Vermont museum asks public to help pick exhibitions

Vermont state of emergency extended to July 15

Vermont, New Hampshire offer contrasting reopening strategies

Do serology tests make sense for Vermont?

Winooski outbreak reaches 83 cases

Cuomo expands gatherings to 25 in North Country, phase 3 areas

New Hampshire stay-at-home order to expire; more businesses to reopen

University of Vermont releases reopening plan

Rutland schools gathering ideas for reopening

Vermont campgrounds can now reopen at full capacity

Motorcycle testing can now resume at Vermont DMV

Welch: Efforts underway to give businesses more flexibility on PPP loans

Last day for Parkway Diner in South Burlington

Perky Planet forced to lay off employees but to remain open

Parking enforcement goes back to normal in Burlington

Coronavirus opens up more opportunities for online predators

Why some claustrophobics suffer from face mask anxiety

Pop-up testing continues through next week

Why experts worry pandemic will lead to more child drownings

NH pen pal program forges connections beyond nursing homes

Vermont Institute of Natural Science to reopen outdoor exhibits

New Hampshire seniors graduate via ski lift

Checking in on indoor dining in Vermont

Stock car racing returns to Vermont

Low-risk youth sports could begin in Northern NY in July

SuperCuts hair stylist gets \$500 tip

Outbreak aside, Vt. health officials say state remains on path to reopening

Scott slams Legislature for delaying stimulus package

North Country spas, restaurants allowed to open their doors

Class of 2020 gets creative for graduation

Furloughs coming to US Citizenship and Immigration Services

Slow restart for New Hampshire lodging industry

NH businesses in need of financial help face midnight deadline

Is the air travel industry taking off again?

Vermont Legislature gives final approval to mail voting

Vermont NEA says fall school reopening a heavy lift

Future funding for food distribution sites uncertain

Governor to skip Thunder Road this year

NH racetrack that violated orders gets OK to open before others

No overnight summer camps in NY over virus concerns

Why working from home may be the new normal after the pandemic

High-tech help for companies working to reopen safely

Dartmouth requires cloth face masks on campus

Pandemic doesn't stop Cabot students from producing original musical

Vt. lawmakers add police reform to busy COVID-19 agenda

NH legislators reconvene in hockey arena, wearing masks

Vt. school nurses weigh in on state's reopening plans

How new Americans in Vermont are handling the COVID crisis

New Hampshire to go from stay-at-home to 'safer' at home

Northern New York enters phase 3 of reopening

Plattsburgh mall tenants frustrated by exclusion from phase 2 reopening

Wide distribution of absentee ballot applications suggested in NH

Wait to reopen? Some NYC shops run out of patience

Final tests of some COVID-19 vaccines to start next month

Pandemic tests Vermont health care reform efforts

No positive coronavirus tests at Southern State Correctional Facility

Status of Lake Placid Ironman still unclear

Opening date of Colchester Causeway delayed

Northern Vermont University releases plans for abbreviated fall semester

Vt. education officials provide initial guidance on reopening

Students, parents weigh in on Vermont kids heading back to class

State proposes \$23M plan to address housing for homeless

New Hampshire marks 100 days of COVID-19

Sanders pushes for GOP action on environment, racial inequality, pandemic

Vermont House approves mail-in election

Winooski-based virus cluster up to 74 cases

Vermont class of 2020 high school grads gifted a college course

How scam artists are capitalizing on coronavirus fears

More food distribution events added to schedule

Rural US hospitals struggle to keep doors open

NerdWallet: Still undecided about college this fall? Know these 4 options

NY relaxes testing requirement for nursing home staffers

Why should you wear a face mask?

How the show will go on... with a twist to make it safe

Is Santa safe? NH task force says yes in amusement park plan

Virus spike in Winooski hits immigrant communities

Vermont labor unions picket in Burlington against job cuts

Technical difficulty stymies Vermonters trying to file for unemployment

Help proposed for NH residents still struggling to pay for housing

Milton revotes school budget with drive-thru polls

NH Libertarian Party says signature requirement unreasonable

400-member NH House prepares for 1st session since pandemic

Coronavirus sparks major losses for fireworks industry

How a Vermont family is helping neighbors in need

St. Albans pool to open for lessons and swim team this month

New York nursing homes ask state to ease virus test mandate

Should you send your child to summer camp during the pandemic?

Why the coronavirus has Americans turning to RVs

Burlington and South Burlington teachers celebrate middle-schoolers

Burlington mayor sets new deadlines for CityPlace developers

Winooski outbreak expands to Burlington

Vermont restaurants open for limited indoor dining

Pandemic spurs redevelopment plan in downtown Rutland

False positive test triggers scare at Rutland long-term care facility

All eyes' on New York: Reopening tests city torn by crises

Canada eases border restriction, allows immediate family in

Burlington 'Box it in' program seeing few takers

Food distribution events could be drawing to a close

NH unemployment paid since March 24 tops sum of last 8 years

DMV offices to reopen Monday for in-person road test appointments

Brattleboro making it easier for businesses to provide outdoor services

Some recreational sports cleared to resume in Vermont

Killington switches gears to mountain biking

Burlington teachers celebrate students with car parade

Burlington Police report no concerns with college student compliance

Vt. lodging, travel restrictions dropped for some visitors

Vermont restaurants cleared to open limited indoor dining

Critics say COVID outreach to Winooski lacking

North Country schools struggle with budget uncertainty

Cross-border couple stymied by coronavirus closure

NH wedding venues, indoor dining get June 15 greenlight

Scott administration pitches \$375M hospital stabilization plan

Lebanon City Council considers reversing course on 3% tax hike

Pay cuts part of cost-cutting measures at UVM

NH lodgings reopen; sunbathing allowed at beaches

Lives Lost: Twins were gentle giants in small Vermont town

Fancy Dance school celebration hits the road

JC Penney closing 4 stores in our region

Eden girl's farm dreams come true

Winooski COVID cluster continues to grow

UVM researchers study lessons learned from coronavirus crisis

New Hampshire track ready to race with empty stands

North Country restaurants open up for outdoor dining

Cuomo: Protesters have 'civic duty' to get virus tested

IRS accidentally mails stimulus checks to deceased people

NH hospitalizations remain steady; no bed shortage

Montpelier makes masks mandatory in public businesses

UVM Campus Children's School will not reopen

CVPH resuming lab tests, EKGs

Senate considers coronavirus' ongoing impacts on colleges

Vermonters turn to ice cream as coronavirus comfort food

North Country hospitals getting back to normal hours

Telehealth expansion could become permanent under NH bill

Farm-to-table dining takes on new meaning amid pandemic

Scott dismayed by use of force for Trump photo-op

Winooski test site reveals additional COVID cases

Pop-up testing site at UVM part of Burlington's 'Box it in' plan

Indoor dining, loosening of Vt. tourism restrictions expected Friday

North Country restaurants can offer outdoor dining Thursday

Sununu defends support of protests during pandemic

State plans to use CARES Act money to help Vt. hospitals

Half of Vermont child care providers reopen in 1st week

2 Upper Valley restaurants closing

Restaurants in much of NY get green light for outdoor dining

New Hampshire candidates urged to file paperwork by mail

Many companies now rescinding job offers to new college grads

Champlain College offering virtual gap year program

Northern New York church providing meals to needy

CVPH offering curbside pharmacy pickups

How the coronavirus overwhelmed a Vt. nursing home

Vermont Mountaineers donate tickets, team apparel to CVMC workers

Businesses urge Vt. Legislature to expedite \$400M stimulus package

Are Vermont shoppers wearing face masks?

Mental health officials seeing pent up surge in 'COVID fatigue'

Employers learn to navigate health privacy laws

NH lawmakers want study of safety in long-term care facilities

Vermont Senate passes bill to allow mail-in voting

Food giveaway packs SUNY Plattsburgh Field House

Quechee Hot Air Balloon Festival canceled this summer

Seniors get a lesson in face mask safety

Personal protective equipment being handed out in Rutland

Telehealth keeping providers, patients connected

Vt. Procurement Technical Assistance Center offers financial assistance to businesses

How coronavirus is changing the face of the beauty industry

With no pro-games, sports cards make a comeback

Burlington City Council postpones action on wealth tax

Gov. Sununu says he supports protesters