

May

Field of candidates finalized for Vermont August primary

South Burlington voters revote school budget

Vt. private campgrounds frustrated with out-of-state restrictions

Plattsburgh restaurant pleads for more space to keep diners safe

In new age of remote work, Vt. businesses consider office space needs

LCI Father's Day fishing derby a go with some changes

Chris Rock, Rosie Perez join Cuomo to push mask use

What goes into stopping spread of COVID-19 in Vermont

Most New Hampshire hospital overflow sites closing

Hassan holds roundtable on expanding NH internet access

NH racetrack puts brakes on season; unemployment claims down

Amtrak ridership down; cuts coming

Election officials move forward with system for mail-in voting

Dartmouth to apply for federal coronavirus relief funding

Vt. State Colleges to create chancellor search committee

Some New York churchgoers upset over reopening restrictions

Program helps feed hungry Vermonters and help farmers

Is your information secure when you use telehealth?

Fair Haven's 'mystery books' substitute for closed library

Music teacher's song sends message of hope

Vt. social gathering limit to be loosened Friday

Vt. health officials: New Long-term care visitation policies in the works

Upper Valley sees first business casualties of pandemic

How getting a haircut will change in the North Country

Vermont high schools plan alternative graduation ceremonies

Event rental companies struggle with cancellations

Cuomo urges Trump to 'do the right thing' on infrastructure, state aid

Vermont Senate considering vote-by-mail legislation

Controversy within Vermont DMV on how to reopen

NH task force approves rules for sports, gambling, driver's ed

Trusted Traveler Program enrollment centers to remain shut down

Burlington landlords prepare for influx of returning college students

How school resource officer keeps up with kids during coronavirus

Vermont lawmakers tasked with mapping stimulus spending

VA Medical Center resuming some in-person services

NH Department of Corrections transfer tests positive for virus

Twins born prematurely to mom with coronavirus go home

Burlington elementary students and teachers to participate in car parade

Plattsburgh mayor to hand out PPE to personal care workers

Virtual babysitting services take off during the coronavirus

The challenges ahead: Exclusive interview with Gov. Phil Scott

Vt. lawmakers at standstill over hazard pay for essential workers

Food giveaway closes Burlington Beltline

DMV closure putting strain on parents, teens, driving instructors

North Country students collect food, money to help community

Farm aid program opens for applications Tuesday

Time running short for NH small businesses to apply for CARES Act grants

New Hampshire expands virus testing to more workers

Rivendell first school district to take post-shutdown budget vote

New Hampshire libraries, museums get help during pandemic

New Hampshire to offer online boater safety certificate

Vermont Historical Society looks to tell state's COVID story

What psychiatric problems can follow a severe case of COVID-19?

Concerns about 2nd wave of coronavirus, related syndrome in kids

How coronavirus is changing online dating

Vermonters observe altered Memorial Day traditions

Tunbridge World's Fair called off for 3rd time in nearly 150 years

Vermont brewpubs welcome back outside service

Summer season starts in Vermont with a cautious kickoff

Tibetan terrier finds fame on Panton woman's blog

Cuomo calls for death benefits for front-line workers

Fallen soldiers honored in Burlington's Battery Park

Vermont musicians take part in communal taps

Vergennes Memorial Day car parade also honors teacher

State to shut down some pop-up alternative care sites

Why the state wants reopening businesses to check their water

New Hampshire state leaders pushing for more nursing home aid

NH officials seek public input on school reopening plans

Vt. art teacher moves students from online to on-lawn learning

Quiet Memorial Day; officials encourage you to get outside safely

Military heroes being remembered across our region

Online NH Veterans Cemetery ceremony filmed in advance

Beaches closed in New Hampshire; coastal towns still in business

Pandemic puts training service dogs for veterans on hold

Port-a-potties return to Vermont fishing accesses

Vt. health officials give greenlight to medical, dental, hairstylist visits

High-flying salute to Vermont essential workers

Why Vermont still isn't ready to welcome out-of-state visitors

Municipalities, banks, utilities feel ripple effect of taxpayers' woes

Burlington to help restaurants, retailers with street closures, parking spaces

NY movie fans flock to Franklin County field for feature presentation

Bike sales soar during pandemic despite supply problems

Rutland gym owner allowed to open outside

Vt. officials reviewing CDC school recommendations

NH reports first case of coronavirus-related syndrome in child

Champlain Valley Fair canceled for 1st time in nearly 100 years

Governor: Vermont cities, towns to decide on fireworks

New Hampshire weighs new virus rules for salons, child care

When should NYC reopen? Governor says it is his call

Vermont unemployment jumped by 12% in April

Vt. congressional delegation respond to reports of layoffs over child care

New Hampshire beaches to open June 1 with restrictions

New York beaches open Friday for swimming

Local Motion allowing online bike rental reservations

Darn Tough selling Farmers Market Sock to raise money for Vermont Foodbank

Wallingford man home after battle with coronavirus

Why dermatologists say sunscreen is now more important than ever

Coronavirus has social media up, influencers down

Farmers being thanked with a lunchtime pizza break

Struggling business closes doors under the coronavirus

Homeless in hotels to be relocated to South Burlington

Long lines for free food in Thetford

Can Vermont schools meet strict new CDC rules to reopen?

North Beach Campground to be used as homeless tent site

Vermont restaurants open for outside dining Friday

Is Vermont's prison pandemic playbook worth copying?

Burlington asks public to be mindful of crowding at recreation hot spots

Vt. lawmakers to address Scott stimulus plan next week

Not all Vermonters protected from losing jobs over child care

Employers that previously hired foreign workers look to locals

NY investigating 159 cases of COVID-related illness in children

F-35 flyover on Friday to honor Vermont's front-line workers

Initial unemployment claims on the decline in New Hampshire

New Hampshire could differ from neighbors on lodging rules

Vermont City Marathon encourages runners to support local hotels

Vt. communities taking different approaches on mask requirements

UVM Health Network shares policy for elective procedures

New York's 'Patron Saint of PPE' goes into debt to donate

Special delivery! Llama brings food to remote residents

Pandemic delays Burlington City Hall Park project

Scott proposes \$400M business stimulus package

Scott stimulus proposal includes cash for struggling dairy farmers

Stimulus plan holds money to help house homeless

Vermont restaurants get the go-ahead for outdoor dining

Coronavirus survival story: 43 days in the hospital

NY sheriff threatens to charge those who lie to contact tracers

Scott holding out hope U.S. Senate will deliver on state relief package

Rogue Rutland gym ordered to bring equipment back inside

Serology tests removed from Vermont coronavirus testing data

COVID-19 testing mandatory before elective surgery at CVPH

Testing sites added, eligibility loosened in New Hampshire

Religious gatherings of up to 10 people now allowed in NY

July 4th celebrations in danger

How COVID-19 is changing the gig worker industry

Time running out for child cares, day camps to apply for stipends

NH rural health clinics get money to expand virus testing

Research shows technology could help with anxiety, depression

Pandemic shines spotlight on the need for diapers

Burlington couple ties the knot after renewing lapsed license

How brides are picking 'the dress' in virtual appointments

Burlington may use federal funds to help some pay rent

Vermont camp conundrum: How to stay safe and stay open

Why Vermont is now closely tracking coronavirus in kids

Scott to announce \$400M business economic stimulus package

NH Democrats: Sununu steering emergency contracts to political allies

Sued Vermont gym reopens as outdoor fitness facility

North Country businesses brace for extended border closure

Music moves online with help from local brewery

Warren cancels 4th of July celebration

New York to allow small Memorial Day ceremonies

New Hampshire task force approves rules for camps, sports

Rutland wastewater test doesn't detect COVID-19

Flags to fly at half-staff for Vt. coronavirus victims

Appeals court OKs June 23 NY Democratic presidential primary

Heroes Act includes rural broadband funding

NH unemployment hits record 16.3% in coronavirus pandemic

Will airlines be able to lure back lost travelers?

Franklin County Fair in New York canceled this summer

Negative COVID-19 tests at St. Johnsbury prison

New Hampshire closes in on nursing home testing goals

Are mandatory face masks unconstitutional?

Fertility treatments put on hold by COVID-19 slowly resume

9-year-old spreading joy with doughnut delivery service

CityPlace construction faces new delays

City of Burlington to require masks in most stores

Tough summer ahead for Vermont tourism sector

Vermont nonessential retailers reopen after 2-month pause

New Hampshire restaurants reopen with outdoor-only seating

Scott to announce 'economic package' Wednesday, additional reopenings

Student parties lead to spike in coronavirus cases

Fitness clubs speak out about gym defying executive order

Western NY, including Buffalo, to start phased reopening

Flu-like symptoms? Get a COVID-19 test

Results in on Adam Sullivan's COVID-19 tests

How does a virtual college graduation stack up?

VSAC borrowers unable to take advantage of 0% interest

Mayor highlights Burlington programs to feed hungry during pandemic

Vermont Goodwill stores now open for shopping

Isolation vs. quarantine: What's the difference?

Rabbi on importance of humor during pandemic

Will patients want to go back to mental health office visits?

Thousands line up for food giveaway in Central Vermont

Vermont reports lowest growth rate of new COVID-19 cases in US

Judge shuts down Vermont gym for violating executive order

Vt. lodgings can reopen May 22, but with pre-quarantine who will come?

Child care workers frustrated with reopening timeline rally at Statehouse

North Country businesses start phase one of reopening

\$595M in NH relief money announced; lawmakers to return in June

Gov. Scott signs bill preventing eviction during the pandemic

Scott defends town budget revote: 'We're not going to tax our way out of this'

Welch pushes \$3 trillion aid package: 'We must act now'

Appeals judges seem apt to let NY presidential primary proceed

Juvenile offenders moving back to Woodside

Why unemployment is disproportionately affecting women

5 NY regions cleared for phased reopening

Native Americans press for more funding as coronavirus spreads through tribes

Stuck in Vermont: Getting back to work safely

Goodwill to start accepting donations again

Bikes now allowed on Lake Champlain Ferries

Is it COVID-19 or allergies? How to tell the difference

New Hampshire high school plans ski lift graduation

Nursing home residents celebrate Class of 2020

Performing arts go virtual during virus outbreak

Vergennes economy feeling effects of COVID-19 pandemic

Deerfield Valley joins list of canceled summer fairs

Hundreds of Vermonters sign up to get tested at pop-up sites

New Hampshire ramps up COVID and antibody testing

Vt. health officials using technology to aid in contact tracing

Are Vermonters' fears about out-of-staters irrational?

UVM faculty and students protest potential cuts

Vt. child care centers worry about meeting reopening guidance

Vergennes marks 50th 'bang and clang parade'

Some New Yorkers still waiting on unemployment

25K self-employed Vermonters navigating PUA benefit program

Revisiting Vermont school budgets due to COVID fallout

Welch questions government whistleblower over Trump virus response

'It's impossible': NY nursing homes fret about testing order

Some elective procedures back at Vermont's largest hospital

New Hampshire hospitals get shipment of Remdesivir

Vermont jury trials face further delays

Burlington Police aim to educate on health guidelines

Substance abuse pressures rise during the COVID-19 pandemic

Is your boss watching while you work from home?

Reopening on track for swaths of central, northern New York

CSWD to reopen Essex drop-off center

Vermont businesses asked to fill out economic impact survey

Some Vermont students eligible for additional food benefits

'Smart helmets' deployed at airports to check temperatures

Hand sanitizer and masks being handed out in the North Country

Video games parents might want their kids to play

Drive-in theater in Colchester opens Friday

Appalachian Mountain Club closes White Mountain huts

Polite Adirondack animals remind you to stay safe

Vt. Education Fund facing \$150M deficit, taxpayers brace for increases

Milton High School seniors receive caps, gowns

Vt. State Parks cancel camping until end of June

Scott: Vt. State Police investigating bias incident

Cuomo gives greenlight to North Country reopening

Reopening guidelines released for Vt. child care centers, day camps

Coronavirus testing opened up to all in Vermont

Will tourists be welcome in Vermont this summer?

Vermont dentists awaiting state guidance to reopen

What Vermont's 'new normal' might look like

NH gets \$61M for testing; virtual commencements planned

New round of COVID testing at South Burlington prison

Vt. health commissioner: Pregnant women should wear masks

Stipends for nursing home workers in New Hampshire

Vermont F-35 flyovers thank essential workers

Vermont joins states suing over relaxed EPA enforcement

The future of political 'baby kissing' up in the air

Pandemic piles new pressures on foster children, caretakers

Why are sanitizers, disinfectants still in such short supply?

Drive-up vaccination clinics aim to keep kids immunized

North Country Lions Clubs deliver treats to front-line workers

Burlington officials discuss post-pandemic future

Burlington School District looks at upcoming budget

Some retailers, customers unsure of new mask expectations

Why reopening may not be worth it for some retailers

Cuomo no-eviction order leaves landlords waiting for relief

What will it take to reopen salons safely?

Vt. students concerned remote learning putting them behind

Don't ignore signs of heart attack begs Dartmouth-Hitchcock doctor

Students perform virtually to support the community

Sanders pushes health officials to make eventual vaccine available to all

NY health officials say 100 children have rare illness linked to COVID-19

Gillibrand bill would devote \$5B for student internet access

More pop-up testing sites opening this week

Appeals court urged to OK June 23 NY presidential primary

NH town considers face mask ordinance with \$200 fine

Cuomo: Wear a mask to respect nurses who died to save us

Politics, press and perspective

Local soccer club resumes practices

Montpelier restaurants cook up thank you meals for health care workers

When shutdowns end, will shoppers stay online?

Is your flight canceled? How to get your money back

Future of Telemedicine: How COVID-19 is changing how we see the doctor

Virtual help for new parents

Wildlife Watch: Critter care continues at ECHO during closure

Vermont retailers can reopen May 18

NH stores reopen with new rules

Vt. officials warn dental practices to remain closed

Vermont manufacturers return to work but future uncertain

UVM president warns of potential cuts to come due to coronavirus

Are more kids playing hooky since school moved online?

Homeless people forced to move out of Burlington campground

COVID-19 outbreak reported at Bennington residential treatment program

How the coronavirus has changed doctor visits

3 New York regions to loosen restrictions this weekend

Vt. labor officials clear miscategorized unemployment claims

Pandemic renews interest in digital ballots

NH golf courses given the greenlight to reopen

Expiring alcoholic beverages put to good use

Will wine lovers cheer for virtual tasting rooms?

Research suggests vitamin D plays role in COVID-19 death rates

Some overnight camping, backcountry privies off limits

Trend of new Vt. cases well below forecast; child care to reopen in June

Defiant Rutland fitness club owner violates emergency order

Will the Paycheck Protection Program help businesses survive?

New Hampshire faces child care challenges

A sweet surprise for Mother's Day at Vermont senior facilities

Digging deeper into national unemployment numbers

NH dentists allowed to reopen Monday

Cuomo says downward trend in cases promising

Vermont schools expected to reopen in fall

As expected, April Vermont revenue collections down sharply

Vermont adds more pop-up testing sites

Some employees concerned about returning to Ethan Allen plant

Comcast to expand rural broadband to hundreds more Vermonters

Castleton lowers tuition for online summer session

Do mosquitoes, ticks carry COVID-19?

CVPH making changes to restart elective surgeries

Families celebrate moms in senior facility while keeping their distance

Burlington Police to work on ensuring safety as restrictions loosen

New Hampshire launches online portal to request testing

Is Vermont's homeless hotels pandemic plan working?

More people answering Vt. unemployment calls, but problems persist

Small Vt. hospitals struggling under COVID shut down

Will the Paycheck Protection Program help businesses survive?

New Hampshire faces child care challenges

A sweet surprise for Mother's Day at Vermont senior facilities

Digging deeper into national unemployment numbers

NH dentists allowed to reopen Monday

Cuomo says downward trend in cases promising

Vermont schools expected to reopen in fall

As expected, April Vermont revenue collections down sharply

Vermont adds more pop-up testing sites

Some employees concerned about returning to Ethan Allen plant

Comcast to expand rural broadband to hundreds more Vermonters

Castleton lowers tuition for online summer session

Do mosquitoes, ticks carry COVID-19?

CVPH making changes to restart elective surgeries

Families celebrate moms in senior facility while keeping their distance

Burlington Police to work on ensuring safety as restrictions loosen

New Hampshire launches online portal to request testing

Is Vermont's homeless hotels pandemic plan working?

More people answering Vt. unemployment calls, but problems persist

Small Vt. hospitals struggling under COVID shut down

Grant to help Vermont surplus milk products get to food bank

Why the coronavirus may help admissions at some colleges

If summer events go on, will anyone attend?

Cuomo extends eviction moratorium to mid-August

Scott defends decision to not make reopening discussions public

Hassan questions NIH officials on 'Shark Tank' coronavirus drug trials

CVPH cleared to begin elective surgery again

Organizers working on alternatives to Battle of Plattsburgh event

Need flowers for mom? Curbside pickup has you covered

Students demand tuition refunds after colleges go online

How 2020 college grads can still start a career during COVID-19

App tracks coronavirus symptoms to reserve hospitals for sickest

Veterinarians provide social distancing care during pandemic

City of Burlington starts reopening park facilities

Vermont State Colleges to undergo independent financial assessment

Vt. recreation, social gathering restrictions loosened

NY North Country on its way to meeting Cuomo reopening criteria

706 Vermonters have recovered from COVID-19

Vt. governor, secretary of state clash over voting by mail

Why retailers are counting on window shoppers this Mother's Day

State to add dozens more public Wi-Fi spots

NH to provide COVID-19 testing without referral

Coronavirus cases in New York down, but rising nationwide

EMS workers trained to test for the coronavirus

Vt. labor officials acknowledge dropped calls for unemployment claims

Springfield Hospital sues SBA for PPP money

\$300M emergency plan proposed for Vt. internet access

New Yorkers to see changes in primary voting

Judge denies coronavirus-related bail request for accused killer

Virus release denied for NH tax evader in armed standoff

Drug Dependence: COVID-19 weakens already fragile U.S. drug supply

Pandemic poses new challenges to those with opioid use disorder

NerdWallet: How states are helping student loan borrowers during the coronavirus

Pandemic forces cancellation of Antique and Classic Car Meet

How small bookstores are reimagining the retail landscape

More shelter pets finding homes during the pandemic

How will Vermont towns deal with influx of summer visitors, residents?

VA Medical Center makes changes amid coronavirus pandemic

Burlington's skate park closed due to social distancing concerns

Governor on keeping Vermont on track during the coronavirus outbreak

How Vermonters returning to work are being kept safe on the job

Anxious parents and kids await state guidance on summer camps

UVM researchers studying ripple effects of social distancing

Golfers face new rules on New York greens

Judge restores NY Democratic presidential primary

Consider human costs in economic reopenings, Cuomo urges

Addison County Fair & Field Days cancels 2020 season

City handing out free face masks in Burlington

Second round of COVID-19 testing completed at St. Albans prison

Masks required in New Hampshire courts

Are people using Vermont's free Wi-Fi spots?

Small businesses think outside the box to survive shutdown

Mexican restaurants adjust Cinco de Mayo celebrations

UVM team compiles COVID-19 research

Coronavirus can be severe in kids despite most showing milder symptoms

Fewer robocalls reported due to coronavirus pandemic

Vt., NH governors clear the way for more health care services

Have coronavirus and live in Northern NY? Expect to see sheriffs

Some businesses say PPP loans too costly

Vermont families face child care crunch as businesses reopen

For the first time in 73 years, Shelburne Museum won't open for summer

North Country could be 1st part of New York cleared to reopen

NH municipalities get \$40M; salon rules get another look

Why fewer child abuse reports in Vermont are raising concerns

Services still available for domestic violence victims in Vermont

Examining the White House's coronavirus testing blueprint

Scott: Every decision tougher than the last during coronavirus crisis

Burlington airport providing face masks to customers

Two North Country health care centers to reopen Monday

NY joining six states to buy vital coronavirus gear in bulk

Summer camp confusion in Vermont

Interim leader: All Vermont state colleges will reopen this fall

Local teacher sends art kits to her students

Protecting cancer patients during the pandemic

Vermont's Green Up Day postponed

Scott turns the spigot on reopening Vermont a bit more

Cuomo: All New York schools to remain closed through spring

Sununu allows restaurants to reopen with restrictions

Data looks promising but state leaders say no victory yet

Darren Perron visited by dinosaurs, bear

More Vermont inmates test positive for COVID-19

Pandemic prompts cuts at UVM Health Network

Scott says update coming soon on elective surgery

CVPH seeing fewer patients with coronavirus symptoms

Vermont May Day rallies support essential workers

Vermont farmers markets face new rules to reopen

Vermont border traffic monitoring reduced

Stuck in Vermont: Talking to essential workers